

VIA BEATA

A way of blessing

Kirkley Way-station

The words on this art-work come from
The Revelation of John chapter 21 v 23.

John was a prisoner on the Island of Patmos, where he was shown an amazing vision of Heavenly things. His record of what he saw makes up the last book of the Bible.

Towards the end of this book, John is given a glimpse of the “Heavenly City”. It is so wonderful that he struggles to find suitable words to describe it.

Here he tries to explain the nature of the supernatural light in the place, and how it touches the nations of the world.

Our prayer is that something of this heavenly light will infuse the town of Lowestoft, bringing blessing to everyone.

The Via Beata was launched in the Summer of 2009.

It is on course to become a complete trail of Christian artworks stretching across the UK from East to West at its widest point.

Artworks which communicate the Christian Gospel are being commissioned and set up in situations where people can stop and meditate upon them.
